The Holy Rosary

The Glorious Mysteries

(typically prayed on Wednesdays and Sundays)

The Resurrection ... Faith

In Mark 9:24, the father of a young child says to Jesus, "Lord, I believe. Please help my unbelief!" The greatest mystery of Christianity is not just that Jesus died on the cross for our sins, but that He rose from the dead and defeated death, so that we can one day experience joyful eternity with Him in Heaven. But this can be a difficult thing to believe. Even St. Thomas doubted until he saw the risen Christ. Though we have absolute assurance of Jesus' resurrection, in deep gratitude, let's ask for an increase in faith, that we may not only believe in the resurrection, but proclaim it within our families and to all we encounter each day.

The Ascension .. Hope and a desire for Heaven

As Catholics, we believe in the Communion of Saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. It is the hope of everlasting life that reminds us that there is so much more waiting for us in Heaven, when we are joined with the entire Body of Christ forever. In this mystery we can picture the disciples as they watched Jesus ascend into Heaven. We can imagine they may have felt afraid or sad to see our Lord depart from them. But they could have hope that they would see Jesus again. So can we. Let's pray during this mystery for an increase in hope and a greater desire for Heaven for ourselves and those in our family.

The Descent of the Holy Spirit ... Wisdom & Love of God

Isn't it exciting to imagine what it would have been like to be there on the day the Holy Spirit descended upon the Apostles? If so, then shouldn't we also be excited by the idea that at our baptism, that same Holy Spirit descended upon us! If we are open to his promptings, the Holy Spirit strengthens us, guides us, gives us wisdom in our Christian journey, and leads us closer to Jesus Christ. As we pray this mystery of the Rosary let's ask for the abundance of the grace that the Holy Spirit offers. Come, Holy Spirit! Come!

The Assumption ... Devotion to Mary & the grace of a happy death

God chose Mary for a special purpose that no one else could fill. He chose her to be the mother of God. The Catholic Church teaches that Mary - Jesus' true mother and our own spiritual mother — was assumed into Heaven, meaning she was "taken up" into Heaven by God. After Jesus' death, Scripture tells us that Mary was cared for by St. John, who later wrote the Book of Revelation. In that final book of the Bible, St. John describes how "A great sign appeared in the sky, a woman clothed with the sun, with the moon under her feet, and on her head a crown of twelve stars." This woman, we believe, is Mary, who keeps no glory for herself, but instead constantly points us to her son, Jesus Christ. Let's pray and ask Mary to help us grow in devotion to her, so that through her, we may better know her son, Jesus.

The Coronation of Mary as Queen ... Eternal happiness

At the Annunciation, the angel Gabriel told Mary that her son, "shall be King over the House of Jacob forever. And of his Kingdom there shall be no end." If Jesus Christ is our King and Lord, then it makes sense that Mary, as his mother, would be the Queen. Throughout her life, Mary was a perfect follower of Jesus. Upon being assumed into Heaven, wouldn't Jesus give his beloved mother the special honor of crowning her with eternal happiness? Let us ask Mary to help us here on earth so that we can be with her and her son in Heaven forever

The greatest deception, and the deepest source of unhappiness, is the illusion of finding life by excluding God, of finding freedom by excluding moral truths and personal responsibility. (St. Pope John Paul II)

St. Jean-Marie Vianney, the Cure of Ars once asked one of his parishioners who spent hours in adoration of the Blessed Sacrament, "My good father, what do you say to our Lord in those long visits you pay Him every day?" "I say nothing to Him," was the man's moving reply; "I look at Him and He looks at me."

"All the good works in the world are not equal to the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass because they are the works of men; but the Mass is the work of God. Martyrdom is nothing in comparison for it is but the sacrifice of man to God; but the Mass is the sacrifice of God for man."

St. John Vianney, Cure d'Ars

Clearly, what God wants above all is our will which we received as a free gift from God in creation and possess as though our own. When a man trains himself to acts of virtue, it is with the help of grace from God from whom all good things come that he does this. The will is what man has as his unique possession. Church Cleaning Ministry

St. Anthony Mary Claret:

The Christian who desires to follow Jesus carrying his cross must bear in mind that the name "Christian" means "bearer or imitator of Christ" and that if he wishes to bear that noble title worthily, he must above all do as Christ charges us in the Gospel; we must oppose or deny ourselves, take up the cross, and follow him.

In danger, in distress, in uncertainty, think of Mary, call upon Mary. She never leaves your lips, she never departs from your heart; and so that you may obtain the help of her prayers, never forget the example of her life. If you follow her, you cannot falter; if you pray to her, you cannot despair; if you think of her, you cannot err. If she sustains you, you will not stumble; if she protects you, you have nothing to fear; if she guides you, you will never flag; if she is favourable to you, you will attain your goal... (Hom. II super Missus est, 17: PL 183, 70-71).

— St. Bernard of Clairvaux from his homily on the Incarnation of Christ.

WHAT IS THE FIRST SATURDAY DEVOTION? The Catholic devotion of First Saturdays was given to the Church by Our Lady of Fatima and the Child Jesus through the children of Fatima. In 1925, Mary and the Child Jesus appeared to Lucia, the sole surviving Fatima visionary, at a convent in Spain and promised her that she would "...assist at the hour of death, with the graces necessary for salvation, all those who on the first Saturdays of five consecutive months confess, receive Holy Communion, pray a Rosary, and keep me company for a quarter of an hour, meditating on the fifteen mysteries with the intention of offering me reparation." HOW TO DO THE FIVE FIRST SATURDAYS: There are 4 requirements to faithfully fulfill the five first Saturdays: Go to Confession. Receive Holy Communion. Say five decades of the Holy Rosary. Meditate for fifteen minutes on the mysteries of the Holy Rosary (separate from saying the Rosary).
